

GORDON INSTRUMENTS offers free, on-site demonstrations of our Video Lectern, TeleMate, and Custom-Optic Overhead Projector. If you are planning to purchase a Video Lectern, a TeleMate, or a Custom-Optic Overhead Projector in the near future and need a demonstration before issuing your purchase order, please complete this form and fax or mail it to us at your earliest convenience. These demonstrations require advance arrangements, and this information will aid us in scheduling a demonstration at a mutually convenient time. Please note that you will save shipping and set-up charges by accepting Gordon equipment at the demonstration.

You may also use this form to request information on our other products, as well as enter your name and address in our customer database in order to receive information on new products as it becomes available.
